

Position Paper Review Guidelines

Publishing Recommendation

Please select only one recommendation:	Publish as is	Publish with minor changes	Revise and resubmit	Reject
Please briefly explain your decision:

Comment Category 1: Abstract

The abstract (up to 200 words, in English irrespective of the original language of the position paper) includes a clear position statement, a clear rationale for the position, and the consequences for the position. The abstract presents a comprehensive overview of the position paper.

Very Strongly Agree	Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Very Strongly Disagree
6	5	4	3	2	1

Notes on Abstract:

Comment Category 2: Introduction

The introduction section provides a clear identification of the research area and issue, a brief description of the state-of-the-art, an argument for why the issue is problematic and significant, and the statement of the position.

Very Strongly Agree	Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Very Strongly Disagree
6	5	4	3	2	1

Notes on Introduction:

Comment Category 3: Body

The body section provides informed and well-structured arguments for the position as well as addresses alternative views.

Very Strongly Agree	Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Very Strongly Disagree
6	5	4	3	2	1

Notes on Body:

Comment Category 4: Conclusion

The conclusion section provides a brief summary of the main points of the paper, and a clear description of its consequences, e.g. a solution to the problem, a call for action, a suggestion for future research.

Very Strongly Agree	Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Very Strongly Disagree
6	5	4	3	2	1

Notes on Conclusion:

Reviewer Notes

Please provide any additional integrative notes on the manuscript related to your publishing recommendation.